VILLA SPLITS WITH CARRANZA AND CONFISCATES OFFICES AT JAUREZ

Reports That General Villa Had Resigned as Commander of the Northern Military Zone Under the Constitutionalist Chief Were Partially Confirmed at El Paso Last Night—Offices at Other Places Taken Over

AMERICAN NEWSPAPER MAN SAW TELEGRAPH OFFICE AT JAUEZ CAPTURED BY SOLDIERS

Reporter Was in the Bureau of Information at the Time and Escaped to American Side to Tell Story—Villa's Resignation Based on Natera's Attempt to Take Zacatecas Without Orders from Him

El Paso, Texas, June 16.—General Villa tendered his resignation to Gen. Carranza within the last week, it became known tonight.

To Villa's message the Constitutionalist commander-in-chief replied asking who should succeed him.

Following this Gen. Villa's various military chiefs held a conference and sent a "round robin" to Carranza, declaring they would accept none other than Villa as a leader. The split of today resulted.

Gen. Villa tonight ordered all commanders of garrisons throughout the territory he controls to report at once at Torreon. This order was accepted ominously by observers here. History of the Pascual Orozco rebellion against President Madero was revived.

Orozco, like Villa, was a leader of volunteer troops of Chihuahua State, and as a popular favorite, led a revolution against the former President.

Carranza's offices at Juarez were confiscated by Villa's superiors tonight.

Similar confiscations are authentically reported to have taken place at Chihuahua City and at Torreon, where Villa remained today.

The seizure of the offices in Juarez tonight was taken here as conclusive evidence of the long predicted split between Carranza, leader of the Constitutionalist revolution, and Villa, his most successful chieftain.

Private advices received here at a late hour told of similar action in taking over Carranza offices at Chihuahua City and Torreon, evidently placing the entire northern part of Mexico in the power of Villa's military leaders.

H. Perez Ahren, Carranza's publicity agent, was reported as jailed and it was made known that nearly all of the employe of Alberto Pani had been arrested. Pani has been in charge of the treasury department at Juarez and has been the trusted relay man in recent exchanges between Carranza from Saltillo, and Rafael Zubaran, at Washington, who in turn transferred the messages to the mediators at Niagara Falls.

Manuel Bonalla, Villa's confidential agent at Juarez said tonight that he had been ordered to hasten to Torreon to confer with his chief.

Relations Have Been Strained.

Although Villa's persistent successes had occasioned speculation regarding his relation with Carranza, the matter did not receive serious consideration until the appointment by Carranza of Gen. Pancho Natera as commander of newly-created military zone. Natera's appointment placed him in charge of a strip of country which Villa previously had planned to invade, included the yet-unconquered city of Zacatecas. Natera attacked this city while Villa remained at Torreon, viewing the experiment from the rear.

According to reports from Mexico City, confirmed by private advices from the revolutionists' front, before this point, Natera was defeated decisively in frequent attempts to take the city. Then it was that Carranza requested Villa to rush to Natera's assistance. This was several days ago and in the meantime reports continued to arrive of Natera's defeats. Villa remained at Torreon.

The matter of who should regulate the public service in Northern Mexico admittedly has been a bone of contention between Carranza, the leader, and Villa, the subordinate. Under the old Federal regime the railroads and telegraph were subject to central control from the national capital.

All of the officials ousted by Villa today were appointees of Carranza, whose civil cabinet had taken over the management of the railroads and incidentally the information bureau in accordance with the prescribed custom in Mexico.

Offices at Juarez Taken.

El Paso, Texas, June 16.—The bureau of information and the telegraph office at Juarez in control of Carranza officials were taken over forcefully tonight by soldiers under Col. Tomas Ornelas, military commander of Juarez and a Villa supporter.

Just after the bureau of information had announced to the press the receipt of a message from the front above Zacatecas, Ornelas' soldiers entered the telegraph office of the bureau and ordered that no paper be touched.

An American newspaper man was seated in the information bureau when the soldiers burst into the room. They ordered Perez Ahra, in charge of the bureau, not to touch a paper. The same soldiers in personal command of the Juarez commander, shortly before had taken over supervision of the telegraph office adjoining.

The American finally slipped through the line of soldiers and arrived here.

The action today followed conflicting reports from the south regarding the success or failure of troops under General Natera, the Carranza appointee, in attacking Zacatecas. From Natera, official reports had said the attack was progressing successfully, while from other sources details were given of Natera's rout.

Villa Remains at Torreon.

General Villa, in the meantime, has remained at Torreon, although ordered by Carranza to proceed to the assistance of Natera. Carranza officials today said Angeles, the Constitutionalist secretary of war, left Torreon today with 5,000 of Villa's troops, including a full division of artillery. Natera had complained of a lack of canon. Villa remained today at Torreon but was said to have begun a general movement of his army toward Zacatecas. The information bureau at Juarez was instituted and sustained by Rafael Zuburan, Carranza's cabinet minister who, at present, is representing the Constitutionalist party at Washington.

The question of the supervisorship of telegraph, heretofore a service of national ownership, long has been disputed between the Villa and Carranza elements, according to authentic reports from Culiacan and Torreon. Colonel Ornelas, the Juarez commander, is a Villa appointee.

Since press reports received from Mexico City stating the Constitutionalists were routed at Zacatecas were confirmed by private advices received here from the south, the Constitutionalist officials have been silent. The announcement tonight by the information bureau that an important bulletin was to be issued caused a general anticipation, which only was dampened by the unexpected display of martial powers at Juarez.

Matter received over the telegraph at Juarez from correspondents with Villa has been subjected to a dual censorship, that by the Villa officials at the front and by Carranza appointees, who took it on themselves to inspect all messages here before they were delivered.

Comment at Laredo.

Laredo, Texas, une 16.—Dispatches from El Paso that the bureau of information and telegraph offices in Juarez had been taken over forcibly by soldiers under Col. Tomas Ornelas, a supporter of General Villa, caused much comment here on account of reports in official circles that Villa had resigned as second chief of the Constitutionalist army. No confirmation of these reports was available tonight.

It also was rumored here that Villa would become governor of the State of Chihuahua, succeeding Fidel Avala, who has been holding the post temporarily. In case Villa has resigned, it is believed here that Felipe Angeles, at present secretary of war for the Constitutionalists, will likely succeed him.

Constitutionalists here expect General Carranza to call together the chief of army officers of the various brigades of Villa's army to choose his successor, in case the latter has resigned. One report here said this already had been done.

Villa's reported resignation is said to be based on General Natera's attempt to take Zecatacas without orders.

Reports Discredited.

Washington, June 16.—Reports that General Villa had resigned command of his army were not credited here tonight either in government circles, or among Constitutionalist agents. Juan Riquiri, secretary of the agency, sai he had not heard the report except through press dispatches and did not believe it.

"That General Villa would proceed to Zacatecas to lead the to leal the attack upon the garrison was declared to be certain. It was pointed out that General Natera, as commander of the central division, acted within his authority it beginning the attack on Zacatects without waiting for orders."

JIM McCLURE ESCAPES CHAIR.

Death Sentence Commuted to 20 Years Imprisonment.

METHODIST CHURCH FORFEITED CONTROL

Of Vanderbilt University, Declares The Board

Unfriendly Action by General Conference at Oklahoma City Prompted Board of Trust to Adopt Resolutions.

Nashville, Tenn., June 16.—That the General Conference of the Southern Methodist church, meeting recently at Oklahoma City, has voluntarily terminated its relations with Vanderbilt University and voluntarily renounced all rights it had, or may have, directly or through any agencies, to confirm the election of members of the board of trust of the University, and that it is now the right and duty of the board of trust to fill vacancies in its body without requiring or receiving the confirmation of the General Conference, or any of its agencies is the sense of a resolution adopted by today's meeting of the board.

The resolution recites the litigation between the college of bishops and the board of trust recently decided by the Tennessee court, setting out that the court held that the board of trust elected its own members but such elections should be confirmed by the General Conference, acting through General Board of Education, but that such right of confirmation would cease in the event that General Conference should at any time surrender, or renounce that right or the relations decreed to be existing, or if it should at any time cease to co-operate with the University, if it should at any time contumaciously refuse to confirm members elected by the board.

The resolution make various unfriendly acts taken by the General Conference at Oklahoma City, justification for the board's course, declaring that the General Conference, "has ceased and refused to co-operate with the niversity or with this board as the said decree of court contemplated and provided should be done if the relation was to be continued, and had thereby terminated any and all right of confirmation it had under said decree or otherwise."

EXPECT TO COMPLETE TESTIMONY THIS WEEK.

In Investigation of Conduct of Fire Insurance Companies.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—The sessions of the special legislative commission for the investigation of the conduct of fire insurance companies in this State were taken up this afternoon with the examination of Engineer A. M. Schoen, of the Southeastern Tariff Association; W. R. Prescott, of Atlanta, and H. R. Bush, of Greensboro, all prominent in the fire insurance world.

Members of the commission believe they will be able to complete the taking of testimony for the investigation this week and the work is being rushed with this end in view.

AMERICAN MARINES EFFECTED ELECTION

In Nicaragua is Charge of Senator Smith.

Declares That State Department Aided American Bankers Who Held Worthless Bonds on Small Republic—Resolution.

Washington, June 16.—Charges that the United States kept its marines in Nicaragua to influence the recent presidential election and that the State Department has been acting in the interests of American bankers, were contained in a resolution introduced today by Senator Smith, of Michigan. The resolution was referred to the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

The resolution declares the State Department, through its control of Nicaraguan customs houses has forced the republic to redeem at par $6,250,000 of bonds issued by Zelaya, later repudiated and bought in at about 25 per cent of their face value by Brown Brothers and Seigman & Company, American bankers interested in Nicaraguan financing.

"The sole beneficiaries of the fraud upon a friendly republic," says the resolution, "were the Brown Brothers, Seligman & Company, and Speyer & Company, and their allies."

KNEELAND SPEAKS ON SOCIAL HYGIENE

Startling Facts Made Public at Chicago

DANCING IS TO BLAME

Director of the Department of Investigation of the American Social Hygiene Association Addresses Women.

Chicago, June 16.—George J. Kneeland today told the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in convention that he found that a prolific source of supply to commercialized vice comes from girls between the ages of 15 and 18 years and that a startling minority comes from homes other than those of poverty and ignorance. Mr. Kneeland is director of the department of investigation of the American Social Hygiene Association.

Mr. Kneeland said his agents in the last year had gathered histories of 300 girls not yet professionally immoral, but well started on the downward path. Contrary to the general impression and the reports of some investigators that the majority of these girls are feeble-minded or subnormal, Mr. Kneeland said that most of the girls are intelligent.

"Some of them," he asserted, "come from such homes as yours. Some live at home in idleness and ease. They are typical American girls, daughters of respectable and prosperous parents. But it is only fair to say that the majority are poor and ignorant."

All through the reports of agents the speaker found certain characteristics among the girls. They were rebellious toward home and parents; they are suspicious and scornful of boy friends whom they call "boobs." Desiring secrecy they prefer to meet strangers and married men.

Dancing is to Blame.

Mr. Kneeland said dancing and impassioned love scenes on the stage intensified the sex appeal. He told the women they could help save these misguided girls, and made the following suggestions:

"Make some effort to find these girls in your town. They are there. Having found them, you can attach yourself to them with bonds of love and understanding.

"Give them healthy and sane inructions as to the mystery of life; warm of disease and the crime of abortion. Knowledge must drive out ignorance.

"Each of you can have a powerful influence in providing amusements in your own community where the sex appeal is eliminated.

"Use your influence to bring about better economic and industrial conditions, so that fathers can be masters in their own home; so that young men can marry early in life.

"Teach ignorant mothers and fathers, so they will love and understand their children more than they do.

"Teach boys and young men to honor womanhood. You can make them realize that to injure a girl, take advantage of her racial instinct at a critical moment is a crime against unborn generations. Men must learn to sacrifice themselves, if need be, for the good of the race.

Use Good Influence

"Use your influence to restore to the home the simple, yet powerful protection which grows out of belief in the religion of our fathers.

"The most complete solution of a man or woman's sex problem lies in vital, personal relationship to the infinite and eternal God. This we must teach our sons and daughters."

Mrs. Perc V. Pennybacker, of Texas, was ere-elected president and the entire ticket of the nominating committee was elected without opposition.

WILSON KNOCKS RUMOR "INTO A COCKED HAT"

President Writes Senator Simmons a Letter

Letter Shows That He Is In Entire Accord With the North Carolina Senator's Position on Tolls Repeal Bill.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 16.—Knocking into a cocked hat the rumor circulated throughout the country that President Wilson was not in favor of the Norris-Simmons amendment to the tolls repeal measure, the Chief Executive today sent Senator Simmons a letter in which he showed plainly that he was in entire accord with Mr. Simmons' amendment. The letter in full follows:

"My dear Senator: The great fight is ended and I want you to know how I have followed from day to day with the greatest admiration and appreciation the part you have played in bringing about the final result.

"I think the whole country feels that result to be very decisive.

"Your work in behalf of this just end has been untiring and brilliant and I thank you for it with all my heart.

"Cordially and sincerely yours,
(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

BEGIN PROBE INTO FATAL COLLISION

Canada Investigating Empress of Ireland Disaster.

KENDALL PUT ON STAND

Captain Of Ill-Fated Ocean Liner Still Cripple From Injuries Received When His Vessel Was Rammed by Collier

Quebec, June 16.—Captain Kendall, of the Empress of Ireland, was the first witness called today when the Government began its investigation into the collision between the Empress and the Storstad, in the lower St. Lawrence river, with the loss of more than a thousand lives. Kendall limped to the witness stand still suffering from injuries he received in the diaster. Examination of witnesses was preceded by the introduction of brief summaries of the facts by counsel representing the owners of the two vessels.

Counsel for the Storstad declared that when she first sighted the Empress the latter was off the Storstad's port. Two minutes later the fog shut down, the Storstad signalled by whistle that she was under way and keeping her course, heading west by south.

Kendalls Testimony

Captain Kendall testified that the accident happened at 1:55 A. M., six and one-half to six and three quarters of a mile east of Father Point.

"While the weather was clear and fine," continued the Captain, "I got one bell saying something was on our starboard bow. There were two mast head lights then about six miles away off my starboard bow. There was then no risk of collision. I still stood on until Father Point was abeam, then altered the course to North 78 magnetic the right course for an outward bound vessel.

"The Storstad lights were then a point off our standboard bow, and I intended to pass her on my starboard side. There was still no risk of danger. The Storstad was showing her starboard side and going clear and I proceeded on the course.

"I then noticed a big bank of mist coming off the south shore and the Storstad's lights getting misty. I stopped ship, ran full speed astern, reducing the ship's headway and blew three short blasts. Suddenly I lost the Storstad's lights, and I blew a second three blasts. The last lights I saw was the two mast head lights and her gren light about one point off my starboard bow. The only thing that would bring her into my course was porting her helm. I rang to stop the engines.

"I heard a prolonged blast from the other ship in the midst of my three blasts from about two points my starboard bow. When the second three were given I heard another long blast saying she was underway. This was four points on the starboard bow. This was still safe for passage, starboard to starboard.

"I blew two long blasts to let the other ship know I was stopped and in return I got one long blast from her. Then I gave two more but I got no reply. I got three whistles, the third of which was about six points off my starboard bow. I sighted his forward mast head and green and red side lights only about 100 feet away. She was bearing at right angles to my course and going fast, as foam at her bow showed. Her captain must have put his helm hard aport."

BUSINESS SUSPENDED IN HONOR OF THE DEAD

Thousands Attend Funeral of Adlai E. Stevenson.

Many Notables Present—Procession Headed by a Band and State Troops—Body Lay in State in Court House.

Bloomington, Ill., June 16.—With business suspended and the city draped in mourning, Bloomington today paid final honors to former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. The body lay in state in the rotunda of the court house for two hours while thousands filed past.

The procession to the church was headed by a band, a troop of the Illinois National Guard and surviving members of the Stevenson escort club, a famous marching organization of the campaign of 1892, which accompanied the Vice President-eleca to the inauguration at Washington. In the procession were 300 miners from the McLean county mine, of which Mr. Stevenson was for many years president, members of the bar association, the mayor and other city officials, and numerous local organizations.

The church held but a fraction of those assembled. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. N. Elliott, Rev. Edgard D. Jones, of Bloomington, and Rev. Martin D. Hardin, or Chicago.

MEDIATORS ABANDON HOPE OF REBEL PARTICIPATION

Conference of American Representatives With Carranzas' Agents Comes to Naught—Split Between Villa and Carranza Will Likely Break Up Mediation Conference—Last Session Will Likely Be Held on Friday of This Week

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 16.—Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, the American delegates to the mediation conference, went to Buffalo today and talked for four hours with Rafael Zubaran and Luis Cabrera, personal representatives of Gen. Carranza. Their purpose was to find some way to bring the Constitutionalists into harmony with the scope of mediation. The mission was a failure.

The Constitutionalist representatives, who had come from Washington especially to see the American delegates, told them why they could not agree to an armistice; why only a man prominent in the Constitutionalist ranks could be accepted by them for the provisional presidency, and finally they said they believed the Constitutionalist army would settle the Mexican problem soon if left unhampered by foreign complications.

The Americans returned to Niagara Falls feeling that, so far as the political pacification of Mexico is concerned, mediation had accomplished nothing and probably the end of the conferences was very near.

The next full conference is set for Friday. Until then little will be done because of the absence of Minister Naon, of Argentina.

Most of the principals here incline to the view that Friday's session may be the last.

Abandon Hope.

The three mediating plenipotentiaries virtually have abandoned hope of solving Mexico's internal problems. The Huerta delegates are resolute in their determination not to accept a Constitutionalist partisan for the provisional presidency and there appears no feasible way of keeping all elements in conference much longer. Only developments not now foreseen, such as a change of attitude on the part of the Constitutionalists or of the Huerta delegates can keep the conference in session.

Dispatches of the forcible seizure by a Villa official of the telegraph office at Juarez, held previously by Carranza officials, created a stir in the mediation colony. The Huerta delegates said it plainly showed the correctness of their repeated warnings that a lack of cohesion in the Constitutionalist ranks would lead to anarchy in the north. The news served also to confirm suspicions current in many quarters here of a breach between Villa and Carranza.

Incidentally it is understood the American delegates inquired of Cabrera and Zubaran what they thought of the stories of a split between Villa and Carranza. The Constitutionalist emissaries said they had confidence in Gen. Carranza's tact and ability to smooth over such difficulties.

The gravest apprehension, nevertheless is felt here of what may follow a break between Carranza and Villa. Should their forces clash, a condition of anarchy might ensue which in all probability would arouse again demand for armed intervention by the United States.

Have Prevented War.

The mediators hold to the opinion that they have accomplished something, in that war between the United States and the Huerta government was halted by mediation.

Gen. Huerta's withdrawal from the presidency is expected soon as a matter of course, regardless of the outcome of mediation. It is believed a successor to Huerta will be chosen at elections in Federal territory next month.

If the mediation conference adjourns, it, in all probability, will acknowledge its failure to bring the rival elements together for a solution of the internal problem, but at the same time probably will announce the solution of Mexico's international conflict. Just what disposition will be made of the American forces at Vera Cruz no one here is in a position to conjecture.

The atmosphere here is wholly pessimistic. The American delegates declined to discuss, in detail, their trip to Buffalo. Mr. Lehmann made a special trip across the river to urge newspaper men not to treat the trip of the American commissioners to Buffalo in a light vein. He assured them the situation was serious. Justice Lamar dictated the following statement:

"For some time we have been trying to get into communication with the Constitutionalists. They did not feel they could under the circumstances come to Niagara Falls, but they were anxious to meet us and suggested Buffalo. With the approval of Washington, we waived all formality and went to see them. We met Rafael Zubaran and Luis Cabrera, the authorized representatives of Gen. Carranza. We had previously confirmed the mediators of our plans."

Conferred All Afternoon.

The American delegates and the two Mexicans conferred all afternoon. The discussion ended shortly before 11 o'clock when Zubaran and Cabrera left for Washington. When the American delegates returned here they telephoned Secretary Bryan. Later Mr. Lehmann communicated the results of their trip to the mediators.

Justice Lamar and Mr. Lehmann had gone to Buffalo not only in the hope of arranging some practical way for negotiating with the Constitutionalists while the mediation was in progress, but of getting names of suitable men for provisional president as well as general information about the Constitutionalist cause.

The Constitutionalists made clear first of all that the condition imposed by the mediators—the declaration of an armistice—was an impossible one for them to fill in advance of some definite agreement on a peace plan. Mr. Cabrera said that if the Constitutionalist army were forced to stop fighting it would disintegrate.

Leaving the question of an armistice both Mr. Cabrera and Mr. Zubaran explained that they hoped there might be some peaceful way of solving the Mexican problem; that they, too, wished to avoid further bloodshed but councils and mediation conferences were valueless unless they took into consideration terms the Constitutionalists demand.

Would Never Agree.

He said the various chiefs never would agree to any change of present plans unless some one so prominent in the Constitutionalist ranks as to guarantee their forces absolute control were elevated to the presidency.

The plan of Guadaloupe to which Mr. Cabrera said allegiance had been sworn by the Constitutionalist leaders, came up for discussion. He said the plan could not be changed unless something more acceptable were offered. The plan provides for a military conquest of Mexico City and the establishment there of Gen. Carranza as provisional president until the country is pacified and preparations made for a general election.

Mr. Cabrera argued that unless the Huerta delegates were ready to arrange for a peaceful surrender, it was useless to discuss neutral persons for the presidency. He said that in the event of surrender guarantee of amnesty for the deserving would be given.

The American delegates made no comment on the Constitutionalist argument. Mr. Lehmann's manner tonight indicated that a crisis in the mediation had been reached, though his words gave no inkling of what the future might hold.

The Mexican delegates tonight issued another statement in repudiation of the claims of former Senator Charles A. Towne, that he represented in Washington the interests of the Huerta government.

No Comment Made.

Washington, June 16.—Word of the announcement of the Constitutionalist representatives to the American Peace Commissioners at Buffalo, that there could be no armistice between the contending Mexican factions and that only a Constitutionalist could be accepted as provisional president, brought no comment from officials of the Washington government.

It had been accepted here that Gen. Carranza would not agree to a cessation of hostilities and that he would not consider any plan for a provisional government that did not contemplate the selection of President of a man of at least Constitutionalist affiliations and tendencies.

Despite reports of an impending break in mediation over the selection of the personnel of the proposed provisional government, Washington officials still are confident mediation will not fail. Before the conference between the American delegates and Carranza's representatives at Buffalo, Justice Lamar was in communication with the Washington government regarding the personnel of the provisional government.

According to information obtainable here, the United States still held to its position that the man to head the temporary Mexican government must be one acceptable to the Carranzistas.

Many men already suggested to the conference by the American delegates are known to have been rejected by Huerta's representatives and the purpose of the Buffalo conference it was reported, was to find, if possible, some one who would be acceptable to Carranza, to whose selection the Huerta commissioners might yield. That it would be impossible to reach a compromise was declared to be the firm belief of administration leaders here.

That the Washington government cannot be influenced by appeals on behalf of the Huerta administration or representatives of the Mexican Clericifcos with respect to mediation, was emphatically evident today, when Charles A. Towne, the New York attorney here representing those interested, announced that his mission was ended. His effort to see the President and Secretary of State came to naught and Mr. Towne issued a statement declaring he had consummated his purpose in calling attention of the administration to the fact that the Huerta delegates at Niagara Falls would not accept for provisional president of Mexico a pronounced Constitutionalist.

WILMINGTON BOY IS ARRESTED IN NORFOLK.

Charged With Attempting to Rob Store—Jewelry Recovered.

Norfolk, Va., June 16.—John Henderson, 14 years old, of Wilmington, N. C., and Fulton Lowery, 18 years old of Elizabeth City, N. C., were arrested here today, accused of having attempted to rob the store of a local clothing merchant.

The police say that the boys admitted having robbed jewelry stores in Raleigh and Elizabeth City. According to the officers, they have recovered jewelry valued at $5,000, which had been packed in a box.

ISLANDERS WIN THE AMERICAN POLO CUP

English Team Outplay American Boys in Second Game.

Score Was Four to Two and Three-fourths at Close of Game—Made Hard Fight to Retain the Championship, but Lost.

Meadowbrook Club, Westbury, L. I., June 16.—The international polo cup, emblematic of the world's championship, will cross the ocean again, having been won her today by the English team in the second game of the series by a score of 4 to 2 3-4. Although the American defenders made a desperate last ditch stand they were not equal to winning and thus forcing the challengers into a third and deciding contest. Their thrilling rushes in the closing minutes of the struggle aroused the 40,000 spectators to a frenzy, however, and no previous international polo struggle ever closed under such tense and exciting conditions.

When the eighth and final period opened, the American four was leading by a fraction of a point. Each team scored a goal in this period but the defenders transgressed the rules by sharp crossing and were penalized for fouling. And so it came about that just as the sun sank Captain Barrett, of the Hurlingham Club's, successful four was carried to the club house on the shoulders of the English cohorts and American polo devotees began to discuss plans for a 1916 invasion of England.

Outplayed and utterly routed in the opening contest when they went down to defeat by a score of 8 1-2 to 3, the Americans today came back in surprising form and shared an equal number of goals to those made by the winners. It was the desperate style of their play and the lack of perfect team work that finally wrought their downfall, for they lost in penalties 2 1-4 points while the English were penalized but one.

There was little difference between the work of the challenging and defending fours today. The re-arranged combination of the Americans showed better team work and fully held its own with the invaders in the matter of riding and hitting.

The line-up of the teams follows:

United States—No. 1, R. LaMontague; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury (captain); No. 3, L. Waterbury; back, M. D. Milburn.

England—No. 1, Captain H. A. Tomkinson; No. 2, Captain St. G. Cheape; No. 3, Major W. F. Barrett (captain); back, Captain V. Lockett.

THEATRICAL

The charming Grand Theatre, with its cozy surroundings and its delightful ways, is just the spot folks seek when the day is dismal. Consequently The Grand was crowded with folks yesterday, and each large audience was delighted with the big things flashed on the screen. Today another superb collection of film triumphs will be shown and then will come the film of all films, "The War In Mexico," which The Grand, at extra heavy expense, will offer the people tomorrow (Thursday).

Today's great feast of good things is headed by Selig's wonderful two-part special, "Shotgun Jones." It is a thrill all the way through. It is the story of cattle rustlers, who kill a man with money, but the victim manages to hide his money belt, which is later picked p by "Shotgun Jones." The latter goes to Canada and buys a ranch, leaving, though unknown to him, the children of the dead man in destitute circumstances. Fate brings the parties concerned together in the backwoods of Canada and there, again, the cattle rustlers appear and try to steal the money, but are finally killed by "Shotgun Jones," who is an expert shot.

Today, too, the fifth of the famed Wood-B. Wedd series is on tap, and it's the best yet. This one is entitled "In High Life," and it's a daisy. The Vitagraph also makes a great contribution today, offering the swell hit, "The Awakening of Barbara Dare."

"Lucile Love" at The Bijou.

Today is the first of the popular playhouse's big feature days of the week, although its patrons consider every day feature day at the popular, ever cool Bijou.

Heading today's bill is a big two-part installment of "Lucile Love' the Girl of Mystery," that great Gold Seal drama-serial, featuring Miss Grace Cunard and Mr. Francis Ford in the greatest work of their lives, this being the eighth part of this great drama. Lucile was left in an exciting situation last week, and the manner in which she extricates herself therefrom furnishes one of the most interesting installments yet.

Coming next on today's big bill is the 13th reel of "Our Mutual Girl," in which pretty Margaret takes part in the St. Patrick's Day parade, and has some other exciting adventures. She is introduced to Cadinal Farley, Mayor Mitchell, and some other notables, including Elsie DeWolfe and Madame Louise, a famous modiste, where she selects some costly finery.

In addition to this double bill of features, there will be a rousing big Crystal comedy, "Easy Money," in which fines absorb the entire salary of a film-made girl. She wants to be the heroine in the movies, but she is only a house girl, and when she goes to the studio to try to get a job playing in the movies, the comedy happens fast and furious.

Tomorrow will be presented that feature of features, "In the Stretch," the most spectacular horse race picture ever seen in movies, and one of the biggest things of its kind ever

Urged by President Parrott of Medical Society.

IN HIS ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Advocates Elimination of Intoxicants Even As a Drug—Governor Craig Pays Tribute to Drs. Stiles and Ferrall.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—The 61st annual session of the North Carolina Medical Society was opened in the city auditorium at 10 o'clock this morning by Dr. Albert Anderson, chairman of the committee on arrangements. The prayer was by Rev. J. C. Wooten, of the Methodist church, and the addresses of welcome by Mayor James I. Johnson and Governor Craig.

Governor Craig laughingly remarked after the exercises that he wanted it understood that he made no reference to Raleigh water or to the Morehead City sanitation incident. His subject was "The Discovery of the Germ Theory," paying tribute to Dr. Stils and to Dr. Jno. A. Ferrall, the latter for his splendid direction of the work of the Rockefeller Sanitation Board first in this State and now in the whole South. Both these gentlemen were present. To the hearty welcomes extended, Dr. D. . Hill, of Lexington, responded in happy vein.

Then followed the annual address by the president of the society, Dr. J. M. Parrott, of Kinston. He declared that the story of development and progress in North Carolina the last decade reads like an Arabian romance. He reviewed this progress in agriculture, in business, in educational and other lines of progress. He took the ground that the time is at hand for the medical profession to use the "splendid agency of the press" for furtherance of the part of the medical profession in this onward march. He summarized with gratification what the State has done in the establishment of suitable institutions for the blind, the feeble-minded, the insane and those afflicted with tuberculosis, and stressed the importance of the medical profession co-opeating in every way and also the necessity of keeping up the progressive policies as to school and oral hygiene, rural sanitation and the elimination of the drug habits and the use of intoxicants. He advocated the elimination of intoxicants even as a drug, insisting that its sale even as a drug should be stopped. He treated the problem of sociology in its bearing on the better physical development of the race and insisted that there should be by all means the application of equal standards of morals for men and women. He pleaded for the elimination of professional jealousy and fraternal strife and for the freest sort of co-operation.

The president's address closed the exercises of public interest and the society got down to the work of committees and the hearing of technical papers.

The balance of the day, afternoon and night sessions, was devoted to the reading of papers by various physicians and surgeons on the general subjects of Physiology and Chemistry, Surgery and Anatomy, as follows:

"A Physiological and Pathological Consideration of Pain, With Clinical Application"—Dr. J. W. Halford, Chalibeate Springs.

"The Bio-Chemistry of Carbohydrate Metabolism, kith a Physiologic Review"—Dr. Wm. T. Carstarphen, Wake Forest.

ALVIN E. UNDERWOOD PASSES SUDDENLY.

Leading Citizen and Business Man of Sampson is Dead.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., June 16.—Alvin E. Underwood, a leading citizen of Sampson county, died suddenly this morning at his home at Earnest. He conducted a large mercantile and turpentine business and was a vice president of the Bank of Roseboro. Endowed with fine business judgment and full of energy, he had amassed a considerable fortune. He was about 60 years of age and leaves a widow and several children, most of whom are grown.

The funeral will be held from the family residence tomorrow morning under the auspices of the FreeMasons and the Woodmen of the World, of which orders the deceased was a prominent member. His death removes from his county and community one most highly esteemed and respected whose place will be hard to fill in many ways.

TO SETTLE IT IN PRIMARY

Congressman Faison Adopts This Method of Choosing Postmaster for Mount Olive.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., June 16.—The question as to who will be Mount Olive's next postmaster will be settled in a primary to be held here June 27.

There are eleven candidates for the postmastership, each of whom received from Dr. John M. Faison, representative from this congressional district, a letter today, informing them that, according to the request of 9 of the 11 contestants, he had decided to settle the matter by a primary; that he had written the chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, instructing him to have the executive committee call a primary for Mount Olive precinct, to be held June 27, the expenses of the primary to be born by the various candidates, each of whom must deposit with the chairman of the executive committee, prior to June 20, a designated amount or forfeit his candidacy. From June 20 to June 26, the registration books will be open for the registration of those Democrats who wish to express themselves in the primary.

The following have entered the contest: F. F. Manly, H. R. Southerland, B. A. Summerlin, E. B. Flowers, W. H. Kornegay, C. A. Spruill, J. E. Giddings, James Hatch, C. G. Sasser, S. J. Roberts and A. H. Whitfield, and there is every indication now that the contest will be a live one, indeed. The contestant receiving the most votes will be recommended by Dr. Faison.

THREE YOUNG NEGROES DROWN IN NEUSE RIVER.

One at Kinston and Two Ten Miles Away from There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 16.—Robert Higgins, about 16 years of age and colored, was drowned in Neuse river near the foot of Bright street yesterday before noon. Higgins was a poor swimmer, and became exhausted within a few feet of the bank. Another swimmer seized upon the drowning boy and attempted to get ashore with him, but was unable to make the rescue.

When Atlas Sutton, colored foreman on the farm of Mr. N. J. Rouse, about 10 miles from here, took two small boys into Neuse river to swim late Friday, he saw both drown before his eyes. One was his adopted son. Sutton had retired to the bank when one of the boys stepped into a slough and went down. Sutton plunged overboard. The other boy, over confident, followed him. He was drowned simultaneously with the first one to go into the slough, and Sutton could not save either.

COL. C. E. McCLUER DEAD

Was One Of The First Electricians In The Country

(Special Star Correspondence)

Tarboro, N. C., June. 16.—In the death of Col. C. E. McCluer Sunday at the home of his son, Mr. C. P. McCluer, there passed one of the first electricians in this country. He was in his 79th year.

At the age of sixteen he went to New York and learned telegraphy and was afterwards engaged with the New York and Erie railroad. He was later made manager of the Western Union office at Lynchburg, Va., which position he held from 1865 to 1880. In the latter year he was appointed district superintendent of the Southern Bell Telephone Company with headquarters at Richmond, Va., which position he held for twenty-three years. In 1893 he moved to Norfolk and was associated with his son, C. P. McCluer as consulting engineers, spending the last years of his life with his daughter, Miss Carlotta McCluer in Norfolk. He contributed a number of scientific articles for journals in this country, being one of the pioneers in his line.

BROCK IS COMMISSIONED.

KINSTON MAN A SUICIDE

Gibson Lanier eliberately Fires Second Shot When First Misses the Mark.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., June 16.—Gibson Lanier, aged 50, a draying contractor, sat on the bank of Neuse river a hundred yards from his home, 310 South Heritage street, shortly after noon today and fired a bullet into his head from a revolver. The first shot which he fired missed, but he calmly placed the muzzle behind his right ear and pulled the trigger again. He is dying.

A man ran from a nearby mill to the Lanier home, where cries followed the report of the shots. Mrs. Lanier was wringing her hands. "He just told me good-bye, he must have shot himself," she said. His body was found behind a shed on the river bank.

Lanier, who was the father of nine children, is believed to have brooded over domestic troubles, which occurred several days ago.

Seed Potatoes
FOR FALL CROP.

The planting of Seed Potatoes in June and July is increasing to a wonderful extent. A great many farmers claim that they give better crops planted at this time than they do when planted in the spring. Potatoes planted in June and July mature in the cool weather of the fall, at a time when they can be harvested to best advantage.

The Seed Potatoes we offer are put in cold storage early in the season, so as to keep in first-class, vigorous condition.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed, to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

A humbug is generally a hummer.

It takes a long-headed man to keep from getting short about the first of every month.

The Philadelphia Evening Star inquires: "What is a quart?" As a general thing, it is a curiosity.

When you discover anything be sure to let it be something which no one else saw first.

We should say that if Huerta is on his last legs his first thought should be to take to them in making a getaway.

One of the graduates at West Point is a Fillipino. He was the first Oriental American to be admitted to the United States war school.

It is stated that Colonel Bryan admits that it was his earliest ambition to be a preacher. We observe that he finally decided to be a statesman, lecturer and preacher combined.

"Make history attractive," urges the Asheville Citizen. Make it truthful and be careful how the unsupported statements of some men are written into history.

With a volcanic eruption in California, sending smoke and flames 2,000 feet into the air, no ordinary political windjammer can hope to compete in attracting public notice.

A German princess married ex-King Emmanuel of Portugal under the idea that she can reform him, but when Gaby Deslys plays in town the princess should keep Mannie at home to mow the lawn.

Sumter, a flourishing South Carolina city, is to have an aeroplane factory. Why not cater to the larger trade in agricultural implements for which there is a market all around Sumter?

Amos Pinchot is the Armageddonite who became famous by making a long distance fight on Mr. George W. Perkins, the meal ticket of the army which is standing at attention at Armageddon.

John Temple Graves seriously exclaims: "Wilson is losing his grip on his party." With 15 majority in the Senate and 145 majority in the House for Wilson's canal tolls exemption repeal bill, it seems that anti-Wilson people have lost all sense of what a grip is.

One of Tillman's criticisms of Wilson's determination to secure the repeal of tolls exemption is that it was poor politics. However, President Wilson is different from a truculent politician who beats around the bush to keep from doing the right thing because he fears somebody may object.

Former Senator Lorimer's chain of banks in Chicago have gone to the wall and many small depositors have lost their savings for a rainy day. In Lorimer's biography it is played up that he was a newsboy, but it has turned out that he wasn't the kind of a newsboy to send to the United States or to run a chain of banks.

Frequent assertion is made that North Carolina is a conservative State. Being conservative is all right, but bourbonism and mossbackism are not by any means a part and parcel of conservatism. The word "conservative" should not be used as an excuse for not being close up to the head of the procession. In one way we are right up at the head of the table, but we are liable to make the cook laugh when we order eggs fried on both sides.

The Republican press is taking a fall out of President Wilson because he said recently that much of the prevailing business depression is "psychological." Of course, it is a state of mind which Republicans love dearly to see and to foster when the Democrats are in power, but most of us remember when there was nothing psychological about Republican depression when a dollar looked as big as the wheel of a log cart in the longleaf pine regions.

TO REGULATE INTER-STATE WATER AND RAIL CARRIERS.

Representative Joshua W. Alexande, chairman of the House committee on merchant marine and Fisheries, on Tuesday introduced a bill to regulate water carriers engaged in the foreign and inter-State commerce of the United States. Its purpose is to bring water transportation interests using the ports of the United States under Federal supervisfon.

We take it that both ocean and river transportation using the ports will be regulated under government supervision on the ground that the ports are not altogether State water gateways but Federal ports, for the reason that the government improves them for the benefit of the commerce of the whole country and really is more concerned in them than the individual States in which one or more ports may be located.

It is gathered from Chairman Alexander's explanation of this bill that where navigation and rail transportation companies connect in the handling of commerce between the States, they will be subject to supervision and regulation under jurisdiction of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Chairman Alexander explains that the bill covers all the recommendations made by the committee in its recent report on the shipping trust, with the exception of those relating to the Inter-State Commerce Commission's supervisory powers over the division of through rates between railroads and domestic water carriers and the issuance of through bills of lading and the giving of access to their terminal facilities by railroads to water carriers on equal terms. The investigations of the committee showed that it is almost the universal practice for steamship lines, engaged in both foreign and domestic trade, to operate under agreements, conference arrangements or gentlemen's understandings, which have for their purpose the control of competition between them and non-interference lines.

The main purpose of the bill is to preserve to shippers, through effective government control, the advantages which can be secured only by permitting the several carriers in any trade to co-operate through some form of rate and traffic arrangement, and at the same time prevent abuses which the committee found to exist.

Under such a bill an ocean steamship line operating into Wilmington could co-operate with a river line to Fayetteville and give shippers there the advantage of through water rates and direct bills of lading for shipments to New York or other ports outside of North Carolina. Railroads and steamship lines or river lines also can cooperate in a similar manner, both as to export and import trade. Traffic arrangements under the bill ought to be of immense advantage to the ports, and, for instance, to such interior water transportation points as Fayetteville and Columbia.

We cannot see why greater co-operation between ocean and river carriers and between railroads and ocean and river carriers should not prove extremely advantageous to all the carriers in the better transportation facilities that it would give and in the inevitable increase of traffic under terms of co-operation.

A HIGHWAY EYE OPENER

The Raleigh Times notes editorially that the most practical proposition it has heard on the subject of good roads is one recently put forward by the office of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture for the maintenance of the Washington to Atlanta highway, or that portion of it which runs through North Carolina.

The Times explains that the plan, in short, suggested by Mr. Winslow of the Department, is for each county along the line of the proposed highway to set apart the same amount of money that it has been the custom to spend in one year on that road and allow the government experts to supervise the expenditure of it. That involves the government's agreement to keep the road in perfect condition for the whole year without further outlay or worry on the part of the county—Wake county for instance.

That is a good proposition, and it also indicates that the government is satisfied that it can build and maintain roads more economically than it can be done by our method, or rather lack of method. That ought to make us do some practical good roads thinking in North Carolina.

WHAT SOUTHERN PORTS CAN DO.

Southern ports can do a great many things they are not doing, nor even attempting to do. It has always struck us that if Wilmingtos had a port commission or somebody to make a study of the opportunities for commerce, the trade of the port could be vastly increased. Enterprising port collectors also could do an important work along that line, or co-operate to great advantage with chambers of commerce in promoting the commerce of a port.

An opportunity for doing business between some South Atlantic port and Vera Cruz has come about on account of the occupation of that Mexican port by the United States navy and army forces, especially on account of the shortage of food supplies at Vera Cruz by reason of the war conditions prevailing in that country. During the emergency which has arisen in the problem of keeping the population of Vera Cruz supplied with food, Secretary Redfield, knowing that the South Atlantic ports were the nearest to Vera Cruz of all the eastern ports, inquired of Savannah whether that port were prepared to send foodstuffs to Vera Cruz.

The Jacksonville Times-Union tells us that Savannah's answer was that she was not prepared to go into such trade with Vera Cruz. Thereupon, the foreign and domestic commerce committee of the Jacksonville Board of Trade wired Secretary Redfield that Jacksonville could supply everything necessary. The Florida metropolis is a large wholesale grocery center and the jobbers there are taking up the matter of dealing directly with the grocers of Vera Cruz.

Jacksonville is plucky and no doubt her ready answer was due to the fact that her Board of Trade has a "foreign and domestic commerce committee" which has made a study of commercial opportunities and that it was not to be caught napping over any opportunity that may come along. Of course, the United States does not propose to buy groceries, but the grocers at Vera Cruz were in the market for supplies and needed to get in touch with markets which can supply them. Secretary Redfield was only the intermediary in this matter, and was simply pointing out to Savannah or some South Atlantic port an opportunity for trade. We ought to discover many commercial opportunities on our own hook.

MORE PROGRESS AT LUMBERTON

The Lumberton Robesonian announces that complete arrangements have been made for financing the new hotel which is to be built in that substantial little city. It is stated that the structure probably will cost $50,000, and that for the size of the place Lumberton is to have one of the prettiest and best equipped hostelries to be found in the State. A Wilmington architect has furnished the plans, and work on the building is to be commenced in about thirty days. It will be erected on the White lot, fronting on Chestnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, opposite the court house and within a block of the postoffice and the banks of the town.

Lumberton is to be congratulated upon the enterprise of its business men in coming forward with the capital necessary for their town to have a hotel which will in every way be a credit to the place. Lumberton is one of the most thrifty places in Eastern North Carolina. It is in the greatest agricultural county of the State, and it is not only a good business center but the site of a flourishing cotton manufacturing industry.

The business men of Lumberton are enterprising and public spirited and they have confidence in the progress and greater development of their town. They have invested their money in cotton mills there, and the fact that their enterprises are prosperous and successful is the best inducement they could hold out to others to come into their midst and succeed just as they have done.

Geographically, Lumberton is situated just where it is bound to develop into a considerable city. Beyond that, however, her business men are back of the development of their town, and to them belongs the credit of its steady substantial growth They believe in Lumberton and so does The Star. We believe in the fine agricultural adaptibilities of that splendid section of Eastern North Carolina, and that Lumberton should be growing and keep on growing is one of the most natural things in the world.

It seems now that when a North Carolina girl goes to Richmond, the police arrest her for wearing clothing to suit the hot weather. They are getting so now that they just won't let a girl be either philosophical or up to right now in modishness.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Wilmington Star says there is a demand for some of those who have been standing at Armageddon to sit down. Yes, and before doing so, to go way back.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Wilmington is preparing to royally entertain the newspapers boys when they gather this month in annual convention. That city and its people have an eviable reputation for hospitality and there is not the least doubt but that the trip will be long remembered by each one of the scribes.—Newbern Journal

State Insurance Commissioner James R. Young proposes a good step by the employment of an expert fireman to advise with city fireman and officials. And if only the insurance companies will sit up and take notice—as they so rarely do in such matters—the abatement of fire risks will go forward apace. —Charlotte Observer.

Why should a Buncombe county farmer have his land assesed at $17,88 an acre and a Richmond county farmer his at $4.49, when Richmond is by far the better farming county? The constitutional committee wanted to try to equalize the burden but the Democratic state convention has declared that that party will not help. —Greensboro News, (Ind.)

THE MONDAY STAR.

The Wilmington Morning Star is to be congratulated upon its progressive move in becoming a seven day paper, having inaugurated a Monday morning edition. Already an excellent newspaper, The Star will be even more acceptable to its large constituency now.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

While a little tardy in congratulating the esteemed Wilmington Star upon ts change from a six to a seven day a week paper, it might be remembered that "it is better late than never". The Star has long been one of the State's leading papers and its rapid progress during the past few ears shows conclusively that it is fast becoming one of the South's leading dailies.—Newbern Journal.

The Wilmington Star will hereafter issue seven papers a week. We congratulate the patrons of that sterling sheet and condole with the editors and other employes will suffer in proportion as the public is benefited by a Monday morning edition.—Norfolk Virginan-Pilot.

The Wilmington Star is now a seven day paper. The change was made this week after a postal card inquiry among its subscribers as to whether the change was desirable or not. Not long ago The Star moved into a new home elegantly fitted up with the latest newspaper conveniences, and this last step is but another move towards the realization of the ideal newspaper, on which The Star prides itself—Red Springs Citizen.

Illicit Still Captured—Farmers Rejoicing—Rebuilding.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., June 16.—Sheriff J. M. Clark added another 60-gallon moonshine still to his list of captures late Saturday afternoon. Sheriff Clark, though young, is a veteran in service. He got information of the location of the still and accompanied by Deputy Sheriffs T. V. Butler, Sr. and Jr., they went to Bethel township and soon found the outfit, but the operators were too shy and had gone huckleberrying or fishing.

The farmers are rejoicing at the fine rains they are having, and crops are looking good.

Contractor L. A. Elkins, of Fayetteville, will be here Wednesday to start rebuilding the district recently burned in the business part of town. He will rebuild the brick building owned by Cain and Mrs. Cummings. Ninety days will see it occupied again, it is stated.

Judge C. C. Lyon is at home here spending his vacation of several weeks.

Experienced Women Advise Mother's Friend

Because it is so perfectly safe to use and has been of such great help to a host of expectant mothers, these women, experienced in this most happy period, advise the use of "Mother's Friend."

Applied externally to the abdominal muscles its purpose is to relieve the undue tension upon the cords and ligaments resulting from muscular expansion. Beneath the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and the gentle, soothing embrocation, "Mother's Friend," is designed to so lubricate the muscular fibres as to avoid the unnecessary and continuous nagging upon this myriad of nerves. It is a reflex action.

Applied to the breasts it affords the proper massage to prevent caking.

Thousands of women have reason to believe in this splendid help under the trying ordeal of motherhood. Their letters are eloquent evidence of its great value to women. In use for many years it has come to be a standard remedy for the purpose.

There is scarcely a well-stocked drug store anywhere but what you can easily obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" and in nearly every town and village is a grandma who herself used it in earlier years. Expectant mothers are urged to try this splendid assistant to comfort.

Mother's Friend is prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 410 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Send for our little book.

CONTRACT LET FOR PRISON STRUCTURE

Mr. A. D. O'Brien Will Build Workhouse at County Farm

Approximate Cost of Model Prison Building Will be $35,000—To be Completed by December 1st. Concrete Construction.

The contract for the construction of a modern concrete prison and workhouse on the county farm property was awarded by the County Commissioners yesterday morning to Mr. A. D. O'Brien, a well known local contractor, the approximate cost of the structure to be $35,000, and the building to be completed by December 1st at the outside. Mr. O'Brien hopes, it is stated, to complete the building by November 1st, and is planning to begin work immediately.

The contract price for the structure covers all work, inside and outside, and when completed the building will be ready for occupancy and use as soon as the furniture and fittings can be installed. It is to be 152 feet long by 42 feet wide, two stories in height, with a gravel roof and a basement under half of it. The plans and specifications for the building were prepared by Mr. Jas. F. Gause, Jr., the architect.

The building is to contain separate compartments for male white and colored inmates, and also separate wards for white and colored female prisoners, as well as separate compartments for the youthful prisoners of each race and sex, in addition to a large ward for the hardened colored prisoners, known as regulars, who spend most of their time in the county camps.

It is to be steam heated, lighted with electricity, and equipped with water and sewerage. The engine room pumping and electric machinery, laundry room and workroom for women prisoners will be located in the basement.

There will also be a number of solitary confinement cells for unruly prisoners and 10 cells for insane prisoners, awaiting admission to the State asylums.

There will be a reading room and library for the use of the inmates on Sundays and week days when inclement weather prevents the prisoners from working outside.

Living quarters for the superintendent and rooms for the guards will also be provided. There will also be a kitchen, with separate dining rooms for the male and female inmates of each race, white and black.

The new prison structure is designed to take the place of the old convict camp at East Wilmington, and it will be made the permanent convict headquarters. It offers a number of advantages, according to the viewpoint of the members of the Board of Commissioners, in that it will centralize the several county institutions on the county home property, making for efficient and economic management; also it offers greatly enlarged opportunities for the introduction of reform work among the prisoners that have not heretofore been possible, and in addition is looked to to do away with much of the trouble in handling mutinous and unruly convicts at the poorly equipped convict camps in the county.

The building will be amply protected against fire throughout, and it will embody all the latest and most modern features of model prisons and workhouses throughout the country. It will give New Hanover county a prison structure second to none in the State, and will enable the county to take its place as a leader in its methods of treating transgressors against the law.

The Board of County Commissioners is authorized, under an act passed by the Legislature in 1905, to borrow the money necessary to construct such a building.

WATER CONSUMPTION.

Councilman Loughlin Says Remedy is in More Meters.

Councilman C. C. Loughlin, in charge of the Department of Water and Sewerage, is giving much thought and investigation just now to the water consumption in the city with a view to working some economies in this department and is convinced that the only solution is in the installation of more meters. According to the report of Chief Engineer Sweeney, at the pumping station, the daily consumption is about two and a half million gallons. Councilman Loughlin addressed a number of inquiries to other cities in the State with a view of seeing just what is the status of the water situation and found that the consumption in Winston-Salem is practically what it is here, while in Charlotte the consumption is only about one and three-quarter million gallons and this, too, covering presumably a much larger area and serving a larger number of people. Charlotte is about 100 per cent metered, which Councilman Loughlin thinks, is responsible for the low consumption in that city.

Councilman Loughlin thinks that the solution for a greater economy in the consumption of water is the use of more meters. He estimates that at least 3,000 more are needed here. Councilman Loughlin expects later to ask for an appropriation for more meters.

SPLENDID PROGRESS IN SUPERIOR COURT

Sandy McKoy Gets 15 Years in State Prison for Murder.

Three Capital Cases Disposed of Yesterday and Many Minor Ones—Court May Adjourn by Tomorrow— Grand Jury

Three capital cases, one of murder and two of burglary, and many minor cases were disposed of during the first day's sesion of a two weeks' term of Superior Court convening yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock with Judge Chas. M. Cooke, of Louisburg, presiding, the progress made being so marked that it is not at all unlikely that court will adjourn before the end of this week.

Sandy McKoy, colored charged with the murder of John Graham, was sentenced to 15 years in the State penitentiary, following his submission of a plea of guilty to murder in the second degree. Henry Chapman and Eddie Martin, both colored, plead guilty to charges of burglary in the second degree and Chapman was sentenced to five years in the State prison while Martin received a sentence of two years in the same institution.

No time was lost in organizating court yesterday morning, the grand jury being drawn, sworn and empanelled as follows: Ed Taylor, forman; G. R. Parker, W. W. Morrison, M. Shrier, L. M. Shew, Ed L. Davis, R. W. Meeks, Wm. M. Fisher, W. M. Schaefer, A. J. Moore, Jr., J. C. Stewart, R. B. Shepard, R. F. Beasley, A. T Parker, J. D. Garrison, W. R. Smith, W. C. Moore, and E. F. Pittman.

Judge Cooke, in his charge to the grand jury, congratulated Wilmington on the big change in the local situation with refrence to the observance of the prohibition law that has taken place in the past few years. While he did not mean to leave the impression that he believed there was no drinking here, he said, nevertheless he thought the situation was about as well in hand as in any city in the city and in better shape than in some.

He declared that it had been reported that there had been 17 whippings at the convict camps in this county recently, and said that if this was true it was being done in open defiance of the law if it had occured since the recent decision of the Supreme Court ina case going up from Wake county. He urged the grand jury to make an investigation and not to summons the men reported to have done the whipping, but those who witnessed it.

Judge Cooke emphasized the necessity for a rigid enforcement of the law against carrying concealed weapons, and in calling the attention of the jurors to the law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes or cigarette materials to boys under 17 years of age, he also spoke at some length on the harmful effects of cigarette smoking.

Sandy McKoy, colored, charged with shooting and killing John Graham, another negro, on the night of April 5th at a negro house in Brooklyn, following a crap game engaged in betwen two and several other negroes, submitted, through his counsel, Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., plea of guilty to a charge of murder in the second degress. The plea was accepted by the State, and later in the day Judge Cooke pronounced judgement upon the negro, sentencing him to 15 years in the State penitentiary.

Henry Chapman, colored, charged with entering the home of Pompey Lyon, colored, with felonious intent, entered a plea of guilty to burglary in the second degree and was sentenced to five years in the State prison.

Eddie Martin, another negro, charged with entering the house of Mr. James Howard for the purpose of burglary, plead guilty to burglary in the second degree, and was sentenced to two years in the penitentary at Raleigh.

Only one case was tried by jury yesterday, that against Henry Pridgen, a white man charged with forging the name of Frank Thompson to a check for $10, which was cashed by Dr. C. P. Vineberg. The jury was out only a short time and returned a verdict of guilty. Judge Cooke sentenced Pridgen to 18 months in the State prison.

Major Creech and Carl Miller, white boys, charged with the larceny of several bracelets and other articles from Mr. R. M. Northrop's cottage on Wrightsville Beach, entered pleas of guilty. Creech, the older of the two boys, was sentenced to a term of six months in the county jail, with permission to the County Commissioners to hire out, and Miller was sentenced to four months in jail with permission to hire out. The Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society is looking after Miller, and will probably arrange to hire him out.

Tom Green, colored, charged with the larceny of some garden hose from the James Memorial Hospital, plead guilty and was sentenced to six months on the county roads.

H. C. Croom, charged with false pretense, waived a bill of indictment and plead guilty to a charge of forcible treaspas, judgement being suspended on payment of the costs.

A. W. Lewis, charged with running a disorderly house, was called and failed. A capias was issued. Walter Gren, charged with embezzlement, was called and failed. A judgement of nisiscifa was entered and a capias ordered. Similar action was taken in the case of Walter Gren, charged with embezzlement, who was called and failed, and also in the case of L. D. Baker, who was called and failed under a similar charge. Myrtle Page, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was called and failed and a capias was issued.

When the docket was called over yesterday, Son Roderick, a nolo contendere defendant on a whiskey charge, was stricken off, he having complied with the terms of the agreement entered into with the court. A case against E. A. Todd, charged with contempt of court, was continued. Jim Johnson was called to answer to a charge of reckless driving, and it was stated to the court that he had just ben arrested on a charge of violating the prohibition law, and was at present in jail. Judge Cooke inquired if the so-called "milk trust cases" had ben argued before the Supreme Court yet. He was informed that they had not.

The excellent progress made yesterday was due to the fact that submissions were entered in all of the important cases. Solicitor Lyon stated last night that if the machinery of the court continues to work as smoothly today, that court would probably adjourn for the term by tomorow night.

The grand jury yesterday returned true bills against Eddie Martin and Henry Chapman, the negroes charged with burglary. Not a true bill was returned in the case of James McCartney, charged with house breaking. A true bill was returned charging Dave Sidbury, white, and Julia Young, colored, with one of the baser crimes.

SEED CRUSHERS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Meeting Opened Yesterday at Wrightsville Beach.

Delegates Represent 75 South Carolina Mills—Report of President and Three Addresses Yesterday—Programme Today

With representatives from 75 cotton seed oil mills of the Palmetto State in attendance, the annual convention of the South Carolina Cotton Seed Crushers' Association was called to order by the president in the convention hall of the Seashore Hotel yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. This is the first convention of the season for Wrightsville Beach. While the northeast wind yesterday was not inviting, the visitors did not let this dampen their ardor and the day proved to be most profitable, both from the standpoint of business and of pleasure.

There are more than 100 members in attendance, most of these having arrived on a special train from Columbia, S. C., about midnight Monday night. Other arrived yesterday and still others are expected to come today. Many are accompanied by their wives, and other members of their families.

The sessions of the convention are being presided over by the president, Mr. John A. Hudgens, of Pelzer, S. C. The other officers of the association are as follows: vice president, Mr. John T. Stevens, of Kershaw, S. C.; secretary and treasurer, Mr. B. F. Taylor, of Columbia, S. C.; assistant secretary, Mr. W. B. West, of Columbia, S. C., A stenographic record of the proceedings is being made by Mr. E. A. Pike, of Columbia, S. C.

After the roll call yesterday the president made his annual report, following which three splendid addresses were made by Prof. H. W. Barre, of Clemson College; Hon. S. J. Summers, of Cameron, and Dr. E. M. Nighbert, of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Programme For Today

The convention will continue through Thursday with one session each day. This morning there will be addresses by Prof. W. H. Barton, of Clemson College, who will speak on "The New Cattle Industry and what it Means to the Farmers and the Oil, Mills of the State; Prof. W. A. Withers, of the North Carolina A. & M. College, who will make an address on "Cotton Seed Meal as Hog Feed"; and Hon. C. L. Ives, of Newbern, president of the Inter-State Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, who will talk on the relationship existing between the State associations and the Inter-state Association.

All of these speakers have given the subjects assigned them special study and the addresses will be both interesting and instructive.

There will be a short business session tomorrow morning at which officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The convention will then adjourn though it is probable that many of the members will spend several days at this popular resort for rest and recreation.

State Uses Much Meal

President Hudgens in his annual address reviewed the work that has been done during the past year and showed the wonderful progress that has been made. He made the striking statement that through the continued use of publicity South Carolina is now using more cotton seed meal and hulls within her borders than the whole State produces. He urged the importance of the cotton seed oil mills individually co-operating with United States Department of Agriculture and with Clemson College in the work of developing the cattle industry of the State. He also called attention to the splendid work that has already been done along this line.

Cotton Diseases Discussed

Professor Barre went into details in his interesting address as to the results that have been obtained in South Carolina in the eradication and the prevention of diseases of cotton. He used a large number of pictures and outlines to show graphically what has been accomplished in this direction. He also showed the effects of these diseases upon the plants with another set of pictures that brought to the attention of his hearers the importance of stopping the ravages of cotton diseases. He showed the splendid results that have been achieved by scientific research.

Mr. Summers made a most interesting address on the importance of co-operation between the farmers and the oil millis and plead earnestly for a closer relationship and better understanding of these two important industries. He was given close attention and his address was well received.

Importance of Cattle.

Dr. E. M. Nighbert, of the United States Department of Agriculture, spoke on co-operative methods in tick eradication, showing how the cotton seed oil mils could in many ways assist the government and other agencies in bringing about the success of the warfare that is being waged on the tick. He stated that South Carolina being one of the greatest if not the greatest states in the union in the production of cotton seed meal made it logically the home of the cattle industry. He deplored that fact that the State is now using the major part of the meal produced as a fertilizer direst when its value could be easily doubled by feeding it to cottle and then utilizing it as fertilizer. He gave some interesting statistics from the Alabama Experiment station that substantiated the statements.

WHIPPING OF CONVICTS

Prisoners Aid Society Will Endeavor to Bring Matter Before the Grand Jury Here

Through Rev. Sidney Love, the seretary, who is spending some time in the city, the Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society will make an effort to have the grand jury of the present term of Superior Court to investigate the whipping of convicts at the camps in New Hanover County, according to a statement made to a Star representative by Mr. Love yesterday.

He stated that he had taken the matter up with the members of the Board of County Commissioners, and that after giving it two days consideration they had decided that they could take no action in the matter.

Mr. Love stated that he had then taken the matter up with a prominent member and representative of the Society, in this city and that he had been advised to get it before the grand jury. He also said that he had discussed the matter with Judge Chas. M. Cooke, of Louisburg, presiding over the present term of Superior Court, and Solicitor Homer L. Lyon and other court officials. He would he stated, probably bring the matter before the Recorder this morning through County Solicitor Geo. L. Peschau, and then have it referred to the Grand Jury.

Mr. Love declared that he had witnessed the whipping of a convict at the East Wilmington camp last Sunday. The prisoner punished was Ed Austin, a negro, and he stated that the whipping was done by Mr. George Harrell, superintendent of the East Wilmington Camp. He stated that Mr. Harrell had told him that another convict was whipped at the camp Monday morning.

It will be remembered that the Board of County Commissioners passed a resolution some months ago, giving to the guards of the new Hanover camps, the right to use such measures as necessary in order to enforce discipline. Previous to that time, the whipping of convicts had been abandoned in the New Honover camps, following the decision of the State Supreme Court in a case involving the whipping of convicts by guards of Wake County.

The action of the Board of Commissioners of this county in passing the resolution was based on the advice of the county attorney, who had investigated the case from Raleigh and the desision of the Supreme Court, which was in effect that the Wake Guards had no right to whip the convicts because the county authorities had never given them the authority to do so. While the resolution passed by the New Hanover Board did not specify that the convicts could be whipped if the guards saw fit, it was generally understood to cover such measures.

The case is somewhat unique, and its outcome will be a matter of public interest.

Mr. George Harrell, superintendent of the East Wilmington convict camp, was indicted yesterday afternoon on an affidavit by Road Superintendent R. A. Burnett, on a charge of assault and battery upon Ed Austin, a colored convict, and was given a hearing before Justice Harriss. He was found guilty and judgment was suspended. Two witnesses were examined. Barney Lear, white, and Emmanuel Pearsall, colored, both of whom testified that no serious injury was done and that no deadly weapon was used, only six lashes having been administered with a light leather strap.

Justice Harriss stated after the case had been heard that if a parent has the right to whip a child and if a school teacher has the right to correct a pupil by whipping, so long as the punishment is not prompted by malice and the treatment was not cruel or inhuman, he could not see why the same should not apply to unruly or mutinous prisoners.

Death of Infant Son,

Many friends will sympathize tenderly with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reaves, Jr. in the death of their five-days-old son which occured Sunday afternoon at their home, No. 916 North Fourth street. The funeral was conducted from the residence Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

Youthful, Wrinkleless Skin Easy to Have

You who desire to regain a youthful appearance will do well to make the acquaintance of the two simple, but valuable, prescriptions here given.

To make an effective wrinkle remover, mix an ounce of powdered saxolite and a half pint of witch hazel. Bathe the face in the solution—immediately every wrinkle is affected. It acts wonderfully on sagging facial muscles, also, the lotion possessing remarkable astringent and tonic properties.

To get rid of an aged, faded freckled or discolored complexion, buy an ounce of common mercolized wax at any drug store and apply nightly as you would cold cream, erasing this mornings with soap and water. This will slowly absorb the undesirable surface skin, revealing the younger, brighter, healthier skin underneath. There's nothing to equal this treatment as a facial rejuvenator.

The young ladies wish it said that they certainly expect their friends to make an appearance in any event.

Wrightsville Beach

Included in the arrivals at the Hanover Inn yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mr. J. F. Heyward, Baltimore, Md.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. Peter S. Gilchrist and children and Miss Ada Porter, sister of Mrs. Gilchrist, returned home last night after a two weeks' stay at Wrightsville Beach."

Among the recent arrivals at the Parsley cottage are Mrs. A. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and baby, of Oxford, N. C., and Mr. John W. Ayler, of Newport News, Va.

Included in the arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were John T. Reid, Norfolk; R. H. Stanton, Tatum, S. C.; L. W. Floyd, Newberry, S. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Voss, Chicago, Ill.

While the cool weather and the northeaster yesterday afternoon did not make the surf exactly pleasant, there were a large number who were willing to try it. They didn't stay in long, however.

Elizabethtown, N. C., June 16.—Mr. D. S. McRae, manager for the Western Union Telegraph Company, at Fayetteville, passed through town with his family today in an automobile going to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach.

There were a large number of members of the South Carolina Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, who registered at the Seashore Hotel as being from "S. C." That should be sufficient for any Tar Heel, explained one of them yesterday.

Dr. J. T. Schonwald and Messrs. B. T. Hopkins and William Penny were members of a fishing party that went out yesterday morning in the launch Nellie May, of Capt. Salter's fleet at the Oceanic Hotel. In spite of the northeaster that was blowing they had good luck and caught more than 200 nice fish. The strong gale made the trip a bit exciting, but they didn't mind a thing like that.

The Tidewater Power Company will begin the free moving picture shows at Lumina next Monday night. Three reels of pictures will be shown each night, on a big screen located over the water just in front of the pavilion. This entertainment feature was inaugurated by the company last summer and it proved tremendously popular with the visitors to Lumina, as will undoubtedly be the case again this summer.

The mid-week dance at Lumina tonight promises to attract an unusually large number of visitors from the city as the cottages are rapidly filling up at the beach and there are quite a number of guests at the several hotels. A feature of the dance this evening will be an exhibition of the new dances by Miss Chandler and Mr. West while the music by Richardson's orchestra, of New York, will be a feature. There will be ample car accommodations for all and the young people of city are especially invited to attend. Many visitors at the beach will also take this opportunity of seeing the new dances and hearing the music by the new orchestra for the season at the beach.

Among the guests registered at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Prof. W. A. Withers, Raleigh; Miss Blanche Tarrant, Greenwood, S. C.; R. E. Craig, Wingfield Young and W. J. McGhee, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stevens, Kershaw, S. C.; W. H. Jernigan, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Cullers, Kershaw; W. E. Young, Savannah, Ga.; W. B. West, Columbia; H. T. Young, Atlanta.

WHO WANTS A DOG?

Canines of Assorted Colors, Sizes and Breeds In City Pound.

Who wants a dog?

Who wants to save some poor little animal from an untimely death at the hands of the city executioner?

There is an assorted lot of every color, size and condition now in the city pound at the foot of the Front street market house, the result of the operation of the dog cart during the past couple of days and unless the owners call for the animals and pay the tax by this afternoon, they will be ruthlessly slain as the law requires.

These dogs may be had for the asking and there are some good-looking specimens in the lot, or were yesterday afternoon. If you want a dog, any size, color or breed, you would do well to visit the city pound and see the officer in charge this morning.

AFTER THE TIGERS.

Several Negroes Given Hearing on Retailing Charges.

Several negroes were given hearing before Justice Harriss yesterday on charges of violating the prohibition laws. Gary Smith, colored, plead guilty in two cases and was sent over to the Recorder for trial. Probable cause was found in a similar case against Ephriam Brown, colored, and he will also face the Recorder. Jim Brown plead guilty to a charge of retailing and went over to the Recorder, as did Walter Guion, who also plead guilty.

James Johnson, also colored, will be given a hearing on a similar charge this morning at 10 o'clock, having been arrested yesterday morning by Constable John H. Davis.

Mid-Week Dance.

Tonight at Lumina. Exhibitions by Miss Chandler and Mr. West

LOCAL DOTS.

—Fire alarm box No. 33, formerly located at the Hemenway school building, will today be transferred to the corner of Fifth and Chesnut streets, where it is to be located in the future.

—James Johnson, colored, a chauffeur for Burnett's garage, was arrested last night by Policeman G. W. Bullard on a charge of speeding. He was recognized for his appearance before the Recorder this morning.

—Charlie Smith, colored, was arrested yesterday at noon by Policeman A. L. Long on a charge of stealing a pistol from Joe Williams. He was lodged in the city prison to await a hearing before the Recorder this morning.

—Dr. Geo. E. Bowdoin, son of Mr. E. H. Bowdoin, of this city, was one of the young doctors successfully passing his examination before the State Board. Dr. Bowdoin will be located at the James Walker Memorial Hospital as an interne, and has already assumed his duties.

—The new auto patrol wagon had a run out to Seventh and Swann streets about 10 o'clock last night after Nathan Humphrey, colored, who was inebriated and disposed to disturb the peace and calm of that neighborhood. Policeman W. R. Applebury sent him down.

—Officers M. C. Gray and J. S. Lane, of the police department, are enjoying their annual vacation this week, a part of which has been spent by them in "camping out" and fishing at The Rocks, down the river. They were accompanied by their little sons, who seem to have enjoyed the sport quite as much as their seniors.

—A city official yesterday pointed out that the public should be informed of the importance of requiring of every plumber, before payment of his bill, the exhibition of a certificate from the plumbing inspector that the work has been done in accordance with the sanitary regulation of the city. He stated that it was an easy matter for a plumber to do inferior work and evade inspection and that as a protection to the citizens generally this requirement of plumbers should be enforced.

WEEKLY MEETING TODAY.

No Matters of Special Importance to Come Before Council.

The weekly meeting of City Council will be held this morning at 10 o'clock, and so far as was known yesterday no matters of special importance were scheduled to come before the body.

One matter still pending, however, is the resolution presented some time ago by Councilman Jones, criticising the local press as to its manner of handling the reports of the proceedings of Council and providing that the city stenographer take down the proceedings of each meeting, a copy to be kept on file in the office of the city clerk as a matter of record.

Mr. Jones explained at the meeting following the presentation of the resolution that on account of Councilman Loughlin's absence he would not introduce it at that time, but would bring it up later, remarking that other members of Council had expressed themselves as in favor of it.

Since that time Mr. Jones has not brought the matter up publicly, though it is presumed that he will either eventually ask for a vote on the resolution or withdraw it in the event that he changes his mind.

A member of the playground commission yesterday complained that Council had not taken any steps toward fulfilling its promise to have City Engineer Pillett prepare an estimate of the cost of making the necessary improvements to the ground at the marine hospital tract, donated to the city by the United States government for use as a public playground and recreation park, through the efforts of members of North Carolina Sorosis.

It was stated that the city should by all means take some steps toward making some of the improvements at once, even if all the work cannot be done at the present time, or the government is likely to withdraw its generous offer.

BRANCH STORE OPENS

C. D. Kenny Co. Will Carry Full Line Of Coffees, Teas and Sugars

Making the 86th branch that the C. D. Kenny Co. has in the United States this well known concern has opened its store on Sluth Front street. They will carry a full line of sugars, coffees, teas, rice and baking powder. In honor of the opening, special souvenirs were given all patrons Monday. The object of the corporation, according to their manager, is to give "better goods for less money."

Mr. H. T. Cambell, who has charge of their branch at Columbia, S. C., has been transferred to this city and will conduct the business. He will be assisted by Mr. Pierre Holmes, formerly with the Holmes Grocery Co.

Before the Recorder.

Ruth Henshaw, a white woman, charged with violating the prohibition law, was found guilty in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, and judgment was suspended for 48 hours to give her an opportunity to leave town. George Brannan, white, was found guilty of vagarncy and was also allowed 48 hours to emove himself from the city. Willie Smith, colored, charged with assault, was sent to the county roads for 30 days.

Mayor Moore Indispose!

A slight illness kept Mayor P. Q. Moore confined to his home for the greater part of yesterday, though he was in his office for a short while yesterday morning. During the remainder of the day Councilman Chas. C. Loughlin, of the department of water and sewerage, officiated as Mayor in the absence of Mr. Moore.

COTTON MARKET NERVOUS

New Crop Positions Showed a Tendency to Rally from Sharp Breaks of Day Preceding

New York, June. 16—The cotton market was rather nervous and irregular today. New crop positions showed a tendency to rally from the sharp break of yesterday, but near months encountered further liquidation by July longs and at the close prices were barely steady net 9 points lower to two points higher.

Indifferent Liverpool cables, a generally satisfactory weather map and expectations of a bearish weekly report from the weather bureau encouraged a renewal of yesterday's selling movement at the opening.

First prices were 3 to 8 points lower in consequence but offerings were will taken and houses with foreign connections and local spot interests appeared to be buying July.

Some of the July buyers were sellers of new crop months, but brokers who had July selling orders were buyers of December and the general list rallied from the lowest on covering in advance of the weekly buerau. This report read about as expected so far as the summary was conerned, but the state details appeared rather less favorable than local shorts had anticipated and new crop months sold 3 to 6 points net higher during the early afternoon.

Old crop positions rallied to about a shade over last night's losing prices during the progress of the new rop advane but eased off again under renewal of July liquidation and closed at the low point of the day. Later deliveries showed losing reactions of some 3 or 6 points from the best. Reports of rains in the Southwest helped the rally during the middle of the day.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription—Try It if Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles, because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, any way, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten cent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

5 grains Optona. (1 Tablet)
2 ounces Water.

Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription keeps the eyes clean and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation. Weak, watery, work-strained eyes, granular lids and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many who wear glasses have discarded them after using it for a few weeks. It is good for the eyes, and will not injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. Any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it, and know for once what real eye comfort is.

MONOTRNY IS BROKEN-UP

Definite Downward Movement in the Stocks All Along the Line—Day's Business Not Large.

New York, June 16.—The monotony or recent days on the stock exchange was broke today by a definite downward movement. When it became evident that the list was susceptible to pressure, selling increased. While the day's business was not large, the stocks were put out steadily enough to force a progressive decline amounting to a point or more in a long list of stocks.

A rumor was circulated in Washington that the freight rate case would not be decided until next month and that it would be disappointing to the railroad, was used successfully for selling the market. Another report was that Mexican negotiations probably would broken off speedily.

With bearish sentiment in the ascendency, the street attached more importance today to the stream of gold which still is flowing out of the country. Today's engagement of gold for Europe amounted to $5,500,000 bringing up the week's total thus far to more than $10,000,000. Since January 1, $65,000,000 of gold has been taken for Europe.

In spite of the reported increase in demand for copper metal following the recent cut in the price, the fortnightly report of European supplies showed a considerable increase. Copper shares were inclined to sag.

London sold stocks here, principally the coppers and Harriman.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value $1,359,000. nited States bonds were unchanged on call.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

Young People From North Carolina Conference Here for Great Meeting at Fifth Street Church.

Delegates are already arriving for the great annual convention of the Epworth League of the North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, which will convene this evening in Fifth Street church, this city, remaining in session through Sunday night.

The advance guard of the convention say that the attendance at this convention will be large and the delegates and Wilmington people are looking forward to the several meetings with much pleasure. The visitors are being entertained in the homes of Epworth Leaguers in the city and it goes without saying that all will be most hospitably taken care of while here. The programme of speakers during the convention embraces the names of some of the leaders in thought and action in this and other States and they will be listened to with pleasure and profit. Among some of the prominent speakers during the week will be Dr. F. S. Parker, of Nashville, Tenn., general secretary of the Epworth League of the Southern Methodist church; Rev. Dr. G. T. Rowe, presiding elder of the Greensboro district; Rev. H. M. North, presiding elder of the Durham district; Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League; Rev. Walter Patton, of Chapel Hill, and Mr. W. V. Martin, of Georgia.

The programme will begin this evening at 8:15 o'clock with devotional exercises of fifteen minutes, followed by addresses of welcome by Mayor Moore, in behalf of the city; Rev. L. E. Thompson, for Methodism of the city; Mr. Hiram K. King, for the Fifth Street League, host of the convention.

The response will be by Hon. W. A. Graham, of Raleigh. Following a selection by the Epworth League Male Quartette, there will be a history of the Epworth League in the North Carolina Conference by Miss Lizzie Hancock, followed by the enrollment of delegates, announcements and the enjoyment of a social hour.

Wilmington extends a most cordial welcome to the Epworth Leaguers and hopes their stay in the city will be altogether pleasant and profitable.

HEALTH INVESTIGATION PROBABLY BEGINS SOON

Request for Third Investigator Through State Board Health

According to Chairman M. S. Willard, of the Board of County Commissioners, the next step in the proposed investigation of the affairs of the County Health Department, will be taken through the State Board of Health. The later body has been asked to make request of the United States Public Health Service at Washington to name the third member of the investigating commission, the other two members being Mr. M. J. Corbett, selected by the city Council, and Mr. J. Allan Taylor, who has ben selected as the represenetative on the part of the Citizens' Committee.

It will be recalled that it was left to the chairman of the Board of Commissioners to call upon the U. S. Public Health Department to name the third member of the investigating committe and Mr. Willard has seen fit to make the formal aplication through the State Board of Health. He has addressed a letter to Dr. J. Howell Way, of Waynesville, president of the State Board, explaining the situation here with reference to the health department and asking him to join in the request for the expert from the government. Mr. Willard explained to Dr. Way that Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, the local superintendent, would be in Raleigh this wek when the State Board of Health meets and that if any further information was desired, Dr. Nesbitt could give its Chairman Willard has received no reply from Dr. Way, which is taken to mean that he is waiting for the conference in Raleigh with Dr. Nesbitt. The State Board is now in sesion in Raleigh and it is expected that the formal request will go to the United States Public Health Service without further delay.

Such requests are usually made through the State Board of Health and Chairman Willard thought it best to make the arrangements in accordance with the usual custom. Meantime the other two investigators are ready to take up their work at any time as a mater of public service and the people as a whole are awaiting action with the hope that the final report of the investigators will settle the health controversy in Wilmington for keeps.

Another condition to the investigation is that the City Council file its formal complaint as to the Health Department and this is expected to be forthcoming within a few days, certainly by the time the investigators are ready to begin work. The personnel of the committee will be named at the earliest possible time.

J. HENRY HEWLETT, JR., DEAD.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett Passed Early This Morning.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Hewlett will learn with sincere regret of the death of their son, J. Henry Hewlett, Jr., which occurred this morning at 2 o'clock in the James Walker Memorial Hospital, following an illness of about four weeks. He would have been 18 years of age next November. The luneral will be announced later.

The remains will be taken today to the home of Mrs. W. S. Hewlett, grandmother of the deceased, at 303 South Fifth street.

Mr. Hawlett is superintendent of The Star building and of the job printing department of the office, and he and his family has the sincerest sympathy of the entire Star family as well as of the community in general

FRATERNITY CONCLAVE COMING.

Kappa Sigmas From District Five to Gather at Wrightsville Beach.

Several local members of the Kappa Sigma college fraternity gathered in the office of Dr. James Durham last night for a get-together meeting to make preparations for the District Conclave which is to meet at rightsville Beach on July 6 and 7.

Quite a number of visitors are expected and the plans are for a two days' session chuck full of business and pleasure. The foundation for plans to mature later was laid at last night's meeting. Those present were James Durham, Jr., Paul C. Cantwell, Robert C. James and J. B. Haman.

THE FRUITS OF SEA GATE.

Mr. Thos. F. Bagley Makes Fine Exhibition from His Place.

Mr. Thos. F. Bagley, of this city, who is something of a practical as well as a "gentleman farmer," exhibited at The Star office last night a collection of fine fruit from his place at Sea Gate, which exhibition at once not only ranks Mr. Bagley as a fruit grower of rare capabilities, but entitles Sea Gate to first rank as a fruit and truck section of the county.

Mr. Bagley brought with him some remarkably fine specimens of Greensboro peaches and Greening apples, the varieties being unusually large in size and of large yield. Mr. Bagley's Early Wonder peaches, first crop, were gathered and sold about the middle of May. These were about two weeks earlier than the up-State peaches and were as fine as Mr. Bagley said he ever saw. He says that during his number of years residence at Sea Gate, he has never yet known a failure of the peach and apple crop. In addition to peaches and aples, Mr. Bagley now has on his place apricots growing and ripening, while he has improved varieties of plums and bunch grapes all maturing to a fine yield. The Star has already made reference to the fine success Mr. Bagley has had with pecans on his place at Sea Gate. He also has cultivated there raspberries and dewberries of the finest variety and will soon be gathering large, full ripe figs of the most delicious kind.

Sea Gate is not only an attractive place at which to live, but judging from Mr. Bagley's success with fruits and vegetables it has no equal as to its horticultural advantages.

MRS. JULIA CROWNSTREAM DEAD

Wife of Mr. William Crownstream Passed Away Yesterday.

Mrs. Julia Agnes Crownstream, wife of Mr. William Crownstream, died at the family home at No. 711 Taylor street, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Crownstream was in her 39th year.

She is survived by her husband and five children, two daughters, Agnes and Ollie May, and three sons, George William, Theodore Stephen and Frank James Crownstream, also by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mintz, of Malmo, Brunswick county; one sister, Mrs. Alice Benton, and three brothers, Messrs. Jefferson, Warren and Rufus Mintz, all of Malmo. The bereaved ones will have the sympathy of a host of friends throughout the city and section in their sorrow.

The remains will be taken by boat tomorrow morning to Crownstream, N. C., where the funeral services will be held, conducted by Rev. W. E. Cowan. Interment will be in the family burying ground at Crownstream.

TO AID MILLER BOY.

Prisoners' Aid Society Interested in His Case.

Rev. Sidney Love, secretary of the North Carolina Prisoners' Air Society, has interested himself in the case of Carl Miller, or Hall Miller, a young white lad convicted in Superior court yesterday on a charge of larceny, and sentenced to four months in the county jail, with privilege to the County Commissioners to hire out.

Miller is 17 years of age, and this is the first time that he has been in trouble. His father lives at Huntersville, N. C., and is unaware of his son's predicament. Mr. Love wired the father yesterday and asked him if he wished to take steps to hire the boy from the commissioners. He is awaiting a reply. If the father does not come to the boy's relief, the society represented by Mr. Love will probably arrange to hire the young man and locate him on a farm in Wake county, belonging to one of the directors of the society.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

Miss Laura Morton Bride of Mr. Arthur West.

Mr. J. Arthur West and Miss Laura Lee Morton, daughter of Mr. Chas. M. Morton, of this city, were married at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Littleton, No. 312 Queen street, last evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of invited friends Miss Vila Brown rendered the wedding march and the attendants were Mr. Arthur Lewis and Miss Gussie Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. West will make their home at No. 418 South Sixth street. Both are popular among a wide circle of friends, who will wish for them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

VALUABLE CARGO LOST.

Hammer Lumber Company's Barge Loses Deck Load of Lumber.

News reached this city yesterday of the loss of between 75,000 and 85,000 feet of dressed lumber from the deck of one of the Hammer Lumber Company's barges between Shallotte bar and Lockwood's Folly off the Brunswick county coast last Friday. The barge was in tow of the tug Atlantic City and was en route to this port from points in South Carolina.

The cargo consisted of tongued and grooved dressed pine boards and was worth about $30 per thousand feet. The loss will be a heavy one. The name of the barge and the reason for the loss of the cargo could not be ascertained last night.

TWENTY-THREE AT RECEPTION 18 HAVE TYPHOID FEVER

Scotland Neck, N. C., June 16—The fact that 18 of 23 teachers, students and friends who attended a reception given three weeks ago at the home of Superintendent C. J. Everett, of the city schools, have developed typhoid fever, has led to a thorough inspection of the school premises to ascertain their freedom from infection, the doctors believing that the germs were contained in a salad course served.
